“ I remember the first time I met you and your wife, you were waiting for Martin, Patty and Jasmine to come home. It was really hot outside so I asked you to come in our house until they came home. That was maybe 13 years ago? Since then I've had the pleasure on numerous occasions to visit next door and see what a beautiful family you have, so many celebrations, wonderful food and music, but most of all, watching your family grow, to me you were a quiet man, we barely spoke, but the love surrounding you said everything.
