

Randall Wayne "Randy" Oliver

February 17, 1947 - February 19, 2015

Randy Oliver was born on February 17, 1947 in Conroe, Texas and passed away on February 19, 2015 in Houston, Texas.

He is preceded in death by his father, W J. Oliver and mother Bernice Oliver; nephew Randy Land and brother Dale Ferguson. He is survived by his sister; Judy Oliver and husband Jackie; son, Lance Oliver; sister, Annette Ferguson; nieces and nephews; Tracy Johnson and husband Cline, El Campo, Texas, Jaime Balette, Jessie Land, Jennifer Cook, Jason Smith, Josh Cook, Robbie Ashley, Shonda Perry, and husband, Scott, all of Montgomery, Texas; numerous other relatives and a host of friends. Also, he is survived by "special" sons, Justin Rahmm, Jason Spradling and his "special friend" Tina Richey.

Randy was an avid outdoorsman, he loved deer hunting, fishing and being with all his friends. Randy had many occupations which included being a welder and truck driver for many years. Randy served his country in the U. S. Army in Vietnam. Randy's greatest passions were when he was able to deer hunt with his dogs. He also had a loving passion for his dogs Baby and Sissy. Graveside services will be held at 2 pm on Sunday, February 22nd at Bethel Cemetery, Montgomery, Texas. You are invited to leave family members a written condolence message at www.shmfh.com

“ Bill & I were so sorry to hear the sad news about Randy. I'm sorry that I didn't hear about the services until yesterday and didn't have a chance to express our condolences. Our hearts go out to the entire family, with special prayers for you, Judy. We will relive the memories and stories for many years, and hope they will bring you comfort as you remember your brother.

With love, Donna Tobola

“ Randy was a very special cousin of mine. We grew up very close and I have so many wonderful memories of him. I remember him being so easygoing and never causing any problems, whereas his sister Judy and I was always in trouble and causing our parents grief. My heart goes out to Judy and the rest of Randy's family.. I will be praying for all of his family. RIP cousin and may God bless you.
