“ Ray's last email to all of us a week ago showed me what a loving person he was, to all of us. As my former professor Dr. Agan generously opened to me so many different paths and yet encourage me to choose my own, live and be happy with it. At a later date in late 1990 after my return from the US, we met again in Jakarta, chasing an elusive project together - with gusto, although we lost it - Ray jokes about it. In a tenderer moment after that, reflecting, Ray said that we always be better set our expectations in moderation. Moderation in everything, including moderation itself. I am saddened by his passing, but happy for he is now in the care of God, who loves Ray better than we do to him. Good bye Ray, we keep you in our thoughts. Sigit Mursidi- Jakarta, INDONESIA

“ We sympathize to hear Dr. Ray Agan's passing. There are at least 265 Indonesians graduated from SHSU and ETSU who are always remembering Dr. Agan's good deeds. In addition there are other thousands Indonesian he met during his working dedication in the Indonesian archipelagoes. So we are regarding and honoring Dr. Agan as one of the old generals who do not die they just fade away (General McArthur's expression). I myself enjoyed continuing our friendships through email until 22 December 2011.

“ I have many memories with Mary Lou and Ray - babysitting Charla and John many times when they lived close to us, and have been able to see them several times as an adult as well as we were traveling. When we moved to Whittier, they were in Kansas, but still able to visit with them. Ray was a good friend/pastor/teacher - to many people through the years. He and Mary Lou are together again, God Bless. My love to the family.

“ I have many fond memories of Uncle Ray and Aunt Mary Lou. We didn't get to see them often, but whenever we did we were welcomed with hugs and many wonderful stories. The time we took our girls to Winterset to connect with them was wonderful. So many wonderful memories. When I took my mom to visit them in Texas in 1995 or 96 we traveled to their church, many Texas sites and enjoyed staying at their home. Peace to Uncle Ray as he joined Aunt Mary Lou. Looking forward to seeing John and Charla in Winterset in the spring. Love, Cindy Boyce Yonker

“ We are so sorry to hear of Ray's passing. I have MANY fond memories of Ray & Mary Lou through the years of my growing up and then as an adult. I always appreciated his kindness, thoughtfulness, & Biblical knowledge. I know he meant a lot to many international students, too. I'm thankful that His Home-going was peaceful. But he will be missed here on earth. I hope we can see you in Winterset when the time is arranged for burial. Love, Alice & Gene
