

Raymond Edward Duensing

February 25, 1952 - October 19, 2021

Raymond Edward Duensing was born in Indianapolis, Indiana on February 25, 1952 and passed away on Tuesday, October 19, 2021.

Ed graduated from high school in Freeport, TX. After attending Elkins Institute for Broadcasting, he later graduated from Brazosport Jr. College and working at Duensing Hardware in Lake Jackson. For a time, he worked with an advertising company creating ads for television. When Duensing Hardware eventually closed and his parents retired, he moved to Houston to work for Capital City as Shipping Manager. When they closed the Houston location, he was offered a job at their Headquarters in Madison, Wisconsin; but he declined. Moving instead to Huntsville, TX where he went to work in the Classification & Records Division at TDCJ. Working there for some 20 years until he retired due to health reasons.

Edward is survived by his mother, Naomi Duensing and numerous relatives in Texas, Illinois, Missouri, and Michigan among others. Edward is preceded in death by his father, Raymond Duensing.

Memorial services are Tuesday, October 26, 2021 at 3:00 p.m. in the chapel of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, TX, Pastor Robert Hemsath officiating. Interment will be at a later date in the McAdams Cemetery. Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.

“ Ed and I worked together at TDCJ for over 15 years. His love and knowledge of music, movies, literature, and comics always amazed me. I called him my pop culture guru!! Ed's quick wit and sense of humor always made it fun to go to work. I will miss you my friend. Thank You for all of the love and laughter! Fly high and touch the sky!!

“ Ed was such an amazing friend and coworker. He never cared that I had to bring my kiddos to work on the weekends and even kept them entertained by teaching them to draw cartoons and refereeing their chair races. Rest easy, my friend.
