

Raymond Scott Swain

April 12, 1963 - March 9, 2022

Raymond Scott Swain was born on April 12, 1963 and went to be with His Lord and Savior on March 9, 2022.

He went to Trinity Christian Academy and graduated in the class of 1981. He furthered his education by also attending Stephen F. Austin University and Texas A&M University. This led to pursuing a career in information technology. He was employed as an Information Technology Analyst (IT Analyst) at IBM in Austin, IT Analyst at Unisys Corp in Austin, Information Technology Specialist at MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, and IT Analyst at Compucom in Houston.

He retired in 2010 and moved to Huntsville, Texas while focusing on his relationship with Jesus Christ and some pastimes. He preferred to be known as a Messianic Jew (a Jew who believed Jesus was the Messiah) and was devoted to his Lord and Savior. He also liked to watch the Dallas Mavericks, Dallas Cowboys and Texas A&M football. Scott also liked to listen to Enya, Billy Joel, and Lou Reed.

His favorite quote was, "But grief should be the instructor of the wise; sorrow is knowledge: they who know the most must mourn the deepest o'er the fatal truth, the Tree of Knowledge is not that of Life", (Lord Byron).
