“ Dear Whitehead Family

I did not know your sweet Rebecca. I did know one of the ones involved.

I just wanted you to know, what a big impact your daughter, Rebecca had on my life and other. She was so young and yet so big. She seemed to know exactly what her life was about and for who. We can all learn from her.

I know you will miss her, but remember there won't be a day that goes by that she is not thought of or remembered by someone.

Your family will continue to be in our prayer.

“ We would like to express our whole hearted sympathy to your family. A loss such as this is so heart breaking and hard to understand when it happens so sudden and to someone so young. As Christians we all take comfort in knowing shes in her mansion in the sky now. My daughter Sarah Camden knew her well and all my kids remember her from their bus and everyone speaks so highly of her and the entire family. Your Family is in our prayers. May Gods grace bring you comfort, The Camden Family of Pointblank.

God will be with you and help you through this time of loss. You will always be in our prayers.

“ I was Rebecca's 5th grade language arts teacher. I was saddened beyond words to hear about this. Time has made it hard to recall many of the names and faces of the children that I had in my classroom, but Rebecca Whitehead's name and sweet spirit is one that I hadn't forgotten. She was such a special girl. Know that she has gone home, is happy right now and wouldn't want her loved ones to be too sad for too long. Jesus will walk beside you through this time and the rest of your lives until you meet Rebecca again.

“ Rebecca was in my class and was always sharing her ipod full of christian music with other students. She was about the Kingdom work. God's plan for her was complete and now she celebrates with Him. She will truly be missed at HHS. She was a joy to have in my class. My prayers are with the family and countless friends. May God bless you all.

“ Although a stranger to your family, my heart goes out to you. It is o.k to cry, but don't cry too much. I feel your pain, because my family and i suffered the lost of our mother and a sister six years ago. Death as a way of surprising us, no when, no where, with no explanation. Be strong and try to live on with the wonderful memories that you have of your (daughter, sister, friend and relative) May your daughter rest in peace.

“ Our hearts and prayers go out to you and your family at this time of loss. My older children knew your daughter and said her love of the Lord showed in everything she did. I know that the kids at HHS are better for having known her! They have been exposed to so much tragedy over the last year and everyone tends to draw my children closer to God. I have read Becca's Myspace and it left me knowing that she is celebrating with Jesus as we speak!

“ There are no words that can heal your broken hearts and spirits at this time. No one can express the deep sorrow you feel. Just know our prayers are with you and your family. We know the dreams have been shattered for our children, but we must give our all to see them again in the Fathers arms when there will be no more tears of sorrow to shed.

“ Our hearts are so very heavy and overwhelmed for your loss. Our tears and prayers are with you as you endure such a sudden and tragic end to a beautiful and precious life. The sound of Rebecca's laughter is still in our ears, and we reprinted her picture from the Wedding to remember her by. We are here for all of you, and will continue to be in the days, weeks, months, and years to come.
