

Rhonda Gail Hardwick

April 22, 1954 - June 3, 2024

Rhonda Gail Hardwick, age 70, of Huntsville, TX, gained her angel wings on Monday June 3, 2024. Surrounded by her children and family, Rhonda passed peacefully and met her maker.

Rhonda was born in Shreveport, LA on April 22, 1954, to Wayne and Bettie Harwick. Being one of six children, Rhonda was constantly surrounded by love. After graduating from Yale High School in Cameron, TX in 1972, Rhonda went on to live a prosperous and successful life.

Anyone that knew Rhonda, knew that her children and grandchildren were the light of her life. She was a remarkable mother and Mimi, and will forever be missed and cherished. There truly is no one like her. She was her family's safety, backbone, security and hero. Life will never be the same without her. It was her contagious smile, witty personality, kind spirit and her love for her family and GOD that made her one of a kind. She never met a stranger and loved everyone equally and never judged. Rhonda was a very hard worker in both life and in her career. Making sure that her family knew that were loved was what she strived for every day. Her children want everyone to remember their mother and her beautiful smile.

Rhonda is preceded in death by her parents Wayne and Bettie Hardwick and her baby sister Bettie Ann Hardwick.

She is survived by her siblings Randy Hardwick, Deborah McCann, Judith Hardwick and Diana Hickerson; her daughter Jennifer Pampell and husband Chris; daughter Laura Sanders and husband Kevin, daughter Pricilla Davidson and husband Dale, and son Jimmie Baker. She will also be greatly missed by her grandchildren: MaKayla Pampell, Logan Pampell, Keaten Davidson, Kynley Davidson, Brady Sanders, Cason Sanders, Sabian Baker & many great grandchildren.

“ I only now found this obituary or I would have responded sooner. Growing up with Rhonda in Cameron was a privilege and a blessing. She was one of the most beautiful people I have ever known in my life. Her beauty was not only physically but inside as well. She always treated me with the utmost kindness and respect.
