“ *Richard, I was proud to be your daughter-in-law for 10 1/2 years. Even with our divorce, I loved hearing from you through the years. You were always special to me, maybe because of my daughters and grandchildren, but just couldn't help but love and care for you and Dorothy. I am so happy that both of you are reaping the rewards of Heaven together now. Rest in peace always.
Love, Sandra*

“ *Dear Teresa,
I was saddened to hear of your loss. Words may not seem to fully convey the comfort I wish to send you and your family in this time of grief; but, nevertheless, I write these heartfelt sentences of condolences, with the hope that they soften some of your sadness.
