

Richard Maurice Koctar

May 4, 1917 - May 27, 2018

On Sunday, May 27, 2018, Richard M. Koctar went to be with his Lord and Savior.

He is preceded in death by two daughters, seven sisters, one brother and his parents Richard M. Koctar, Sr. and Janie Orsag Koctar.

Born and raised in Bell County, Texas his passions during this life were his family, fishing, building bird houses; a true jack-of-all-trades; but wood working and yard work were his greatest enjoyments.

He served in the military during W.W. II as a Machinist Mate 1st Class in the Navy as a Seabee. He returned after the war ended and went to work for Schneider Construction Company as a Construction Superintendent for 44 years.

Upon his retirement, he and his wife Joy moved to Huntsville, Texas in 1987.

Richard leaves behind his wife Joy of 69 years; two sons; two daughters-in-law; six grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

“ One word best described Richard M. Koctar. That word is proud. He was proud of his beautiful family, his home, his life as a hard-working, honest man, his service to America in WWII, and his personal relationship with Jesus Christ. I loved him greatly and am proud to be his niece. Rest in peace, Uncle Richard. Eleanor Bosl
