“ Sweetheart:

I CHOSE you to do life with, hand in hand side by side. I CHOSE you to love with my whole being unconditionally. I CHOSE you at the beginning and ending of every day. And I would have CHOSEN you in a hundred lifetimes and a hundred worlds in any version of reality. I CHOSE you and ONLY You. I now CHOOSE to love you for eternity. I now CHOOSE to never take the love we had lightly. The only thing that matters is I HAD YOU and YOU HAD ME. I love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck.

“ On Father's Day my brother, with his wife holding one hand and his youngest son holding his other hand, went to join the Lord. He went peacefully in his own home, surrounded by his family, including me. And who doesn't want to go like that. The following Saturday, in a quiet country cemetery surround by family and friends we buried his ashes. In the words of a country song "a simple man simply laid to rest". That night, as per his standing request, with family and friends we had a feast of homemade barbecue, played some great classic country, did a little slow dancing under the stars, and shared memories of my brother. He was not a perfect man, but he was a good man with a loving heart. He never met a stranger and he was always willing to lend a helping hand. He was much loved and will be greatly missed. Rest in peace, Kat
