“ AT Your Side He Will Remain

*I watch the tears fall of those who stand by.
I see their despair tearing them a part inside.
I fell so helpless as I watch at their side.
Trying to give hope, as my feelings I hide.
I want to tell them not to cry.
I want to say, "this is only body - the soul shall never die."
At the time I know these words won't erase the pain.
Sometimes silence is better than words spoke in vain.
Agentle touch, a simple nod is all I can do-- except a prayer to our Father to see them through.
For I know His touch is gentle and will guide them through their pain,
and help them realize, at their side He will remain.
He will be truly missed.*
