*Our loss is Heaven's gain when you entered the gates of heaven There were hundreds and hundreds of people on each side of the streets of gold waiting for your arrival. The angels were playing their horns, harpe & trumpets, the most beautiful music one has ever heard. It was a celebration like heaven has not experienced in quite a while and there to meet you was Mom, Paw Paw, Mammy & Pappy, Mother,, Aunt Ethel, Geneva Hester, Aunt Louise, Geneva Samsel, Aunt Mary, Sammy Junior and Charlene.
& Granny Duke. It must've been one heck of family reunion
Give everyone my love. I love you Aunt Deanie*

“ HUNTSVILLE will be a sad place with the loss of my dear friend Dean Duke BUT what a joy HEAVEN will be with their new Angel. She was a true servant for the Lord and I learned so much from her. I love her and her entire family and will miss her so much. Please know that she is in Heaven sitting at the feet of her Lord with the biggest smile on her face. She has reached the destination she has fought so hard to reach. God bless you all. Mr. Sam, I know it will be tough without Dean, but your heart and brain is so full of loving memories and those cannot be taken away. To her children and grandchildren, she will be at the gates of Heaven to meet you, so continue to live your lives for the Lord.
