“ My dear husband and father of our children. This has taken me a while to be able to do this but I know that you are looking down on us and smiling that big amile of yours. I know that you are proud of the kidos as they played and spoke at your services. Know that you were very much loved and will be missed so. I get mad because we were suppose to grow old together and watch our kidos grow and all get married and have us some grand kids. Know that our wonderful son-in-law is taking care of us all and that Ashley could have not chosen any better. The whole family will greatly miss you but me most of all. This last year has been one of the best in our marriage. I will be thinking of you on the 22nd of July which will be our 21st aniversary. We will not sit around and mope because that is not what you would have wanted. I LOVE YOU AND WILL MISS YOU WITH ALL MY HEART AND SOUL.
Your loving wife, TJ

“ Daddy--

*I love you so much. You are the best man in the entire world and I could not have asked for a better father. God really knows how to make the good ones. I am trying to be strong for you but sometimes it is hard. You are the one who helped me make it through so many times. Even though I was a pain in the butt sometimes, it was only to keep you on your toes. I can't wait until you see me graduate from college because I know you will be looking down on me. I hope that you will always be proud of me. Hope that you are having a great time with your sister and grandma. So many people are going to miss you more than you will ever know. Watch out for me and be my guardian angel. I LOVE YOU DADDY!!!

“ Terri, Ashely, Ricky, Leah and the whole Harris family,

You have our deepest sympathy on your loss! Bob knew your family well. I personally will never forget the morning I wrecked my car around the corner from where y'all used to live. Terri, Bobby and the kids took me in and helped calm me down, even though I was a basket case. These are the kind of memories that will always be remembered.

If you need anything please don't hesitate to call: 832-651-0543 cell; 281-328-6949 home

*Y'all have our love and deepest condolences,

“ Terri--my heart goes out to you and to your children. I can't imagine what you must be going through, and I don't have any magic words to ease your pain. However, of this I am certain: God is there for all of you, and in your darkest hour--when you think there's no way you can go another day-- all you have to do is reach out your hand for Him. God bless you and your family.

“ Terri, Ashley, Ricky & Leah: You are in my thoughts and in my prayers at this time. Terri, I can empathize with you on the sudden loss of your spouse. You children, I can empathize with you on the loss of your dad. It was God's will that both my husband and my father were taken suddenly by heart attacks. The bright thing in this tragedy is this: Bobby did not have to linger and suffer. He was active to the very end and for that you can be thankful. God is good. Love, Cuz Sara
