“ We just learned of Bobby's passing this morning and our hearts are broken. Bobby was a close friend of my husband, David Moore, for many years. They first met when Bobby was a manager at Ruby Tuesday-Willowbrook and remained in touch. Although we didn't get to see Bobby often, we will always treasure the good times spent with him.

To Jared and the rest of Bobby's family - you are in our prayers.

“ I would like to offer my deepest condolences. We all have experienced the loss of a loved one. I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that you are not alone. Turn to the Holy Scriptures for guidance so that aching heart can be soothed. Psalm 34:18 assures us that God is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit he saves.

“ To the Kneisler family,
My name is Brian Gips Jr. I had the pleasure of working with Bobby at Ruby Tuesdays in 1994. Bobby offered me my first job as a manager out of college at the University of Houston. He taught me all he knew about running a restaurant and how to always remain guest focused. Through the years, not only was he a boss but he also became a good friend. Bobby and I kept up through the years through mutual friends. He was always a pleasure to be around and made the time spending with him most enjoyable. Most recently, I worked at Pappasitos on 290 and chatted with him frequently when he came in to the restaurant. I always enjoyed chatting with him and enjoyed our conversations. I will miss him dearly and always remember him.

Regards,

Brian Gips Jr.

“ I will miss you buddy. I can't make it, because I am opening a new restaurant and today is our second day. You would be the one guy to understand. Love you and miss ya!!
