

Robert Lane

February 6, 2008

Robert E. "Bobby" Lane 65, died February 6, 2008, at his residence . A native of Kingsport, Tennessee, he had lived in Texas since 1960. He was preceded in death by his parents, Clyde P. Lane and Hazel Hill Lane, and by a brother, Walter C. Lane.

He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Paula Sue Nelson and husband Ricky and two grandchildren, Stacia and Andrew Loyd, of Wheaton, Missouri; by a brother and sister-in-law, Dr. Thomas D. Lane and wife Kaye, of Elizabethton, Tennessee; and by nieces Traci Lane and Kelli Martin (husband John) of Dallas, Karen Small and great niece Sarah Small of Lewisville, Texas, and a nephew, Warren lane of Kingsport, Tennessee.

He attended Dobyns-Bennett High School in Kingsport and completed his education in Dallas, Texas. He was a veteran of the U.S. Navy and had worked as a computer draftsman for Texas Instruments in Dallas and in the oil-well supply business in the Houston area. At the time of his death, he had worked for many years as a licensed drug and alcohol counselor for Gateway, a private contractor for the Texas Department of Corrections. His peers say that he helped an untold number of people in that capacity.

A private memorial service will be held at a later date. Services are under the direction of the Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home.
