

Robert N. Linqvist

December 21, 1970 - May 29, 2020

"Let all that you do be done with love." 1 Corinthians 16:14

Robert "Rob" Norman Linqvist was born December 21, 1970 in Willoughby, Ohio to Jeannette and the late William H. Linqvist. Shortly after graduating high school in North Carolina, Robert moved to Texas in 1989. He was a proud entrepreneur of an electrical installment company for the majority of his career where he not only had customers but friends. What made Robert unique was his love and passion for God, America, his family, and his friends. He will be remembered by all as the jolliest, funniest, and most loving person you could meet. Robert lived his life to the fullest and never let obstacles get in his way. Robert saw the good in everyone and was always willing to lend a helping hand. Robert passed away peacefully on May 29, 2020, in Conroe, Texas surrounded by family and close friends. He will be greatly missed and remembered as a son, brother, generous friend to many, and a passionate businessman.

In addition to his father, William H. Linqvist, Robert was preceded in death by a brother, Dennis Wagner.

Robert is survived by his mother, Jeannette M Linqvist; brothers: Daniel Wagner, William J. Linqvist and wife, Jamie; Nephews: Garrett and Spencer Linqvist and John Wagner; Niece Mason Wagner, Uncles: Jack Mason and wife, Kathy and Norman Linqvist and wife, Lavada.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, June 19th at 10:00 AM at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Montgomery, Texas. The family requests you come in casual attire, as this is what Robert would have wanted.
