“ Dear Jada, Eva, & Jason; It is with heavy heart that We join you in mourning the loss of "Honey".
With all the things we have gone through together, I feel bad that I can't be with you in these hours. And I am recuperating from back surgery and am required to remain in house until 9/7/12. We will just have to cherish the good memeories and accept that the Lord has welcomed Honey. While I know this to be a great shock and trauma, knowing how you have handled adversity before, I take some comfort in the hope and knowledge that you and you family will stiffen your backs and stand tall with Rogers departure. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help.Ps 46:1. The Lord bells and keep you all and with your spirit. Ray, Wanda and Taylor Family. si12o

So very sad to hear about Roger, and so sad for you. Please accept my condolences.
I literally just walked in the door from Oman, with a broken computer (am using Carol's until I get a new one) and didn't get the message until tonight.
Sorry

“ Dear Jada,
What terribly sad news, not just for me but, all those who have worked with Roger all over the world. He was greatly liked and respected by a huge number of people, everywhere. On my recent trip to Pakistan I mentioned I knew Roger Guinn and the stories came flooding out and as one company man said, “He was one of the best company men he had ever worked with”.
I guess you can't really get better than that, as the mark of a man, and a bit like “Ol' Ray Wadley” the stories will go on for years to come.
Bless you and keep safe.
