“ Jess and family: I am so sorry for your loss. I know that there are not enough words in this world to express how much we love you.
You are in our prayers and we love you very much.

“ Jessica and kids, I was saddened by the news of Rodney. In the darkness of these days look to the LORD for light and healing. It will not happen all at once but HE will provide. One day things will be better. The hole in your lives will not fill up and go away, but the sharp pain and rough edges will be relived and smoothed over. You all are in my prayers and in the prayers of my home church.
