“ Marie,
I am so sorry for your loss. In times like these, look to God and your friends for the strength you will need to get through it. Rodney is at peace now, and that alone should give you some comfort. Your friends will get you through this, lean on them and me as much as you can! God bless!

“ *marie,
Where to start....we all go a long way back, Rodney trusting me with his most prized possession, Devin to take care of meant a lot to me, y'all did a wonderful job with that young man! I am so sad for y'all, but glad Rodney has no more pain! I know you are in pain now, but please try to remember all the good times, when Rodney's hard headed self made you smile! He was a good man that worked hard to take care of his family, he will always be remembered by James and me with good memories, his laugh was contagious and his Love for y'all was imeasurable! May you and devin find some peace now, you are loved! James and Dawn*

“ *Dearest Marie,I am thinking of you and Rodney today and praying for both of you and your families. I will always be remembering his great laugh and smile. He was so nice to Penny and myself, and always took such good care of our property on Livingston. We all had so many fun moments together. I can't remember a time when he was not so full of life. I always had great respect for the way he took care of Devin, always teaching him and helping to guide him through life's roadblocks. He is at peace now and pain free.I will always be grateful for having the times we had. Be well.

“ *My Dearest Marie and Devin,
I wish I had the right words to take away your pain, but I know of none. Rodney was a very special person. A type of man that stands tall among others with not so much his words but by his actions. You both had so many wonderful adventures and great times. "Never Let Go" of those memories and Rodney will always be with you in your heart. He is at Peace and no longer hurting. We love you both.*

“ Marie & Devin,

So sorry for your loss of Rodney. I remember his visits on my back porch- educating us to the local politics, local businesses, & the locals in general. He was there for us when Pearl was deteriorating offering time and a shoulder to cry on. Rodney will be missed, but I know in my heart he is now, once again at peace.
