“ Teresa so sorry to hear about Roger. Just happened to see in in Huntsville Item on the internet. Roger was a fine man and I always cherished his friendship. Times like this make us realize how short our stay here on earth really is. I will always wish we could get together for one more of his great steaks. I will always appreciate how he stayed with me through thick and thin. I will miss him. Judge Adams

“ Teresa, my thoughts and prayers are with your family at this difficult time. Roger was a classmate and dear friend as we grew up together in Carthage. I found out after we became adults that we were actually related....his mother and my grandfather were siblings! You know he was a great guy and was loved by anyone who knew him. I've really enjoyed getting to chat with him at the last couple of reunions we've had. I loved his smile...he smiled with his eyes as much as his mouth!! I know you and the children/grandchildren will miss him dearly. Rest in the comfort of the One who made him and has now completed his healing. Lean on Him and He will provide the comfort you need. Much love.
