“ There some individuals that come into your life that you will never forget. Ron is one of those individuals. Ron and I shared a bond because we both had lost our spouses and when talking to a lady found that out. He talked about loosing his wife and how that was his true love. I remember walking into his home and seeing her picture. One of the other things I remember is meeting his daughter who came down (after one of his accidents). He talked so much about his children and how much they meant to him. He loved them more than anything. Ron loved his music too....Thanks to him we went and saw one of his bands and honestly he was right....they were excellent.

Ron you will never be forgotten, but will especially be remembered for your love of family and your love for riding. I know Jake, JT and especially Cheri were there to greet you and welcome you to heaven. Rest In Peace Ron you deserve to have no more pain and just love!

“ Ron was like a lighthouse. He was not a man who spoke often, but when he did, he had something to say. He was a father, an uncle and a friend to so many. The loss of Ron has left many without a compass. Remember him often, and raise a toast to him now and then.
