“ I met Ron through Dr. Hal Conwell and knew he was a pilot. Later, during the construction of the library in New Waverly, he and my dad were in contact a lot. “ I had the privilege of working with Ron in preparing grant proposals to Meadows Foundation and Houston Endowment to help complete the New Waverly Library. His determination to bring the library to fruition and his dedication to having the very best facility possible inspired me to volunteer my time to put together the grant requests even though I do not live in New Waverly. Ron Kolb was a truly extraordinary man, and I hold Becky and their family in my prayers.

“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of "Capt. Kolb". I too am a former Navy pilot and LSO hired by Delta in 1986. I spent my first 2 months with the company flying out of Houston where most of my trips were with Ron. We talked about our previous careers and he was a great influence and help with my transition to "civilian" flying. Over the years I would think about him often and the impact he has had on my career with Delta. I currently am based in Atlanta, a line check airman, and fly the 767-400. He will be truly missed.

“ Becky and Family, my most sincere condolences go out to you. I was deeply saddened to hear of Ron's passing. It was always a pleasure to fly with Ron in my early years with Delta. What a considerate gentleman! I'll always remember the time he stopped on a hot July afternoon to change a tire for my wife who was stuck on Kennedy Blvd. with a car full of kids! He was a fighter, and used every trick he could find to fight this dreaded disease. He will be sorely missed.

“ We are blessed to count Robin, Chris and their girls among our very closest friends, and have come to know Ron through them. He was a good man who raised his daughter the right way- to be a smart young woman who holds steadfastly to her beliefs and cherishes family above all else. Ron has left that most important legacy behind to be passed on to future generations. He was a good man, husband, father and grandfather and will be greatly missed. We pray for comfort and peace for the whole family in the days to come.
