“ It is never easy losing someone you love.. Though it is hard on us still here, I am at peace knowing he is in Heaven and is no longer suffering! I will miss my Uncle everyday, just as I miss those who have passed before him. It is harder because my 3 year old got so attached to his Uncle Ronnie. I am thankful he will always have good memories of his Uncle though. I only wish his other nephew could have come into this world in time to meet him also. Love you Uncle Ronnie!

“ *You are very missed. You were my 24/7 bub. My 4 o'clock coffee time. Howard and I miss you so much. Today has been the worst having you not here. All those times we went over your desire getting to the beach and couldn't. I'm going to go and take the truck and we will reminisce all your dreams of building your house and all the things we held onto together. We will laugh at our 3 musketeers adventures. The way you hated drinking that ensure and how happy spaghetti night made you. How wound changing hurt you and I to do that daily. The kisses you got after I changed the wound everytime. I'm going to miss you telling me your right as the rain. Our Andy Griffiths tv watching at bedtime. The I love you gave to us and just to here have a good night love you when we all go to sleep. There are so many memories that couldn't possibly fit on the internet. But you Howard and I know that we together had our good times our happiness and sadness and a great love and respect for each other. You are with God family and friends now. You are loved and missed. From the cradle to the gave bro. Love external Rest Easy Heaven is yours NOW. Look over us all and I'll see you when I get there.
Peace & Love*
