

Ronnie David Stepanski

July 24, 1956 - August 28, 2015

Ronnie David Stepanski was born July 24, 1956, in Houston, TX. He was the son of Philip and Betty Stepanski. After serving our country for 6 years in the U.S. Navy, he raised his family in New Waverly, TX along side his wife of 29 years, Jennifer Stepanski. Ronnie had an entrepreneurial and creative spirit which enabled him to run a dental prosthetic laboratory for 35 years. Aside from his role as a devoted husband and father, Ronnie was a lover of the outdoors. Every fall you knew where Ronnie would be during hunting season. His love of learning new things gave him a wealth of knowledge on just about every subject you can imagine. His witty personality was one of the reasons he is also known as my Mr. Wonderful.

He is preceded in death by great nephew Riley James Monteith.

He is survived by his wife Jennifer Stepanski, son Zachary Stepanski, son Austin Stepanski and his wife Jordan Stepanski. Ronnie's grandchildren were his pride and joy, Kyndal Grace Bingham, Blake David Stepanski and Dane Michael Stepanski. Ronnie is also survived by his parents Philip Thomas Stepanski and wife Betty Louise Stepanski. His sister and husband Debbie and Bruce Krenek as well as their family Lacy Peirsons, Ean Ledford and their children Lilli, Kadence and Jordan; Jenna and husband Scott Spillars and their children Kolby, Tinsley and Nolan. Also, his brother and wife Doug and Kim Stepanski as well as their family Cory and Heather Stepanski, Chase
