“ Annie,

I grew up with Russell in Hayesville Iowa and somehow never kept in contact with him over the years, a fact which I sincerely regret. I had seen him only once or twice since I left Iowa and remember him as a solid and grounded person. I remember all the many times we played together. The time he wrecked his 1938 Buick, which he had inherited from his grandfather, only put a small dent in the roof. I was so upset when he sold it for $800. I know you must miss him and wish you the warmest condolences for your loss.

“ May God comfort you in your time of sorrow. One can always be so thankful for the memories we have. That is what we cling to and what will always be so precious to us. Though I had not seen Russell for some time, I know he would have known me as he never forgot family. Much love to you all. “ Annie, you are a special person and constantly in our prayers. You made the last few years so special for RJ. RJ was the best big brother ever. From childhood memories of letting me play cowboys (even though I had to stay at camp and cook!) to grownup years of brotherly advice. RJ - I followed you to Cedar Rapids and haven't regretted it a moment since - love always.

“ Annie and Family,

You and R.J. are so special to me. I will always remember how he would call to see how I was doing and not think of him self.

I will hold you in my heart and prayers. We know R.J. is in such a wonderful place but he will be so missed here on earth.

God Bless You.

Love June
