“ I often think of the trip taken as a teenager with Uncle Bert & Aunt Bernice to see Uncle Bob & Aunt Ruth in Provo. We hiked to a cave in the Wasatch Mountains. When we were in the cave, the ranger pointed his flashlight to the ceiling and asked, do you see that crack in the ceiling? That's the Wasatch Fault Line!

“ Sweet, precious auntie. It was always a joy to spend time with her even though our visits were few and separated sometimes by months and years. As a little girl I thought she had such a pretty, musical voice. I loved to listen as she visited with family. I will always treasure the memories of times together. She was truly a precious gift to our family. To me she was the perfect picture of grace and loveliness. There was something very regal about our dear Auntie Ruth. She bore her many losses with dignity and hope and I am looking forward with her to the day when all her losses will be restored in the place where joy and gladness never end.
Gwennie (Uncle Bob's niece, Maud's daughter)

“ Oh my dear aunt Ruth. As a young boy I didn't get to see her much because they lived in Provo Utah and we were in Seattle. But when we did get to be together at family gather ings like Woodland Park picnics I remember her sweet quiet way and her dear gentle smile. She was so very gentle and oh so quick to help in any way she could when she saw a need. In my mind she was an earth angel. The last time I saw her was at aunt Lyle's double wide in Polson Montana where she and uncle Bob were staying to help Lyle. As always she was tending to everyones needs in her quiet loving way. What a dear woman. May God rest her soul. I truly look forward to spending time with her when we meet again on the new earth which I know she looked forward to also. God blessed us all who knew darling Ruth Dalrymple.

“ Dear Nathan, Jonathan, Angela, Lorianne, and Connie and Families,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“Yes, I can still hear her little giggle and smile. She always tried to make peace between our squabble with Ed. She was always ready to give us hugs and love. Loved Auntie so much, and have her in my heart encouraging me!” (Linda)

“I remember Aunt Ruth as always being a sweet, gentle, quiet soul, but often with a sparkle in her eyes and a quick sense of humor. She went through a lot, but bore her heartaches quietly and never complained, instead she gave a lot of love and care to others. I loved her so much and will always carry her in my heart. “ (Donna)

“I remember Auntie Ruth’s twinkle in her eyes, smile of understanding, and she was an excellent cook! We miss her but thankful she is “home”. “ (Thelma)
