“ Ruthie & Ruby always asked if we were sisters and yes we are sisters of the heart. I remember all the years of dance lessons at Faye Burns Dance Studio, our Brownie troop and growing up together in Huntsville. Praying for all that knew and loved you so much. The world isn't the same without your bright smile. Heaven is much brighter because Ruthie Jean Fails Smith arrived. I will miss you always and carry you in my heart. Until we meet again, sweet angel. I love you.

Sharon and Wessley, we are so sorry to hear that Ruthie passed away. I pray comfort, peace and grace over all the family in Jesus name. Amen! We love you all and will keep you in our prayers. When my daughter, Gena passed away, what helped me was to remind myself when I missed her and the rest of my family members that have gone to Heaven ahead of me that this world is not my home. I am only passing through and I will see them all again in Heaven. I know that you know that Ruthie is in Heaven, but the hard part is being left behind until then. God bless and keep you.

“ Ruthie was the first to take charge of any situation that needed her, rather it was bringing home the bread, a shoulder to cry on, a refuge in the early morning hour, a call of distress to help a friend during difficult times, this was the Ruthie we all knew, a strong independent woman, Mother and friend. Ruthie loved her daughter unconditionally. Health robbed her , butt she stood steadfast, the strong Woman she was, I only wished I could have seen through her pain and helped in some way...our Sweet Ruthie you will always be in our hearts.

“ Our prayers go out to the Fails and Smith families. Having grown up and gone to school with Ruthie and Shane, this is so shocking and hard to understand, especially when someone like Ruthie leaves us at her young age. May God give you comfort as you mourn her loss. God Bless you all!

“ Ruthie was my best friend in 6th grade and a close friend through middle and high school. She is gone too soon. Prayers for the Smith and Fails families. May you feel the comfort promised by our Savior in John 14:27--"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." Until you meet again.
