“ Sabin, I've known you for almost 30yrs and can't ever remember a time that you and I weren't laughing about something, or poking fun at someone :p. You are truly one of my oldest friends and you will always have a special place in my heart.

One day we shall meet again, and I know you will be waiting for me on the other side. Until then: I love you, dear friend, and you will be dearly missed.

“ Dear Cousin, there is a void in my heart that misses you so much that words cannot express. I will miss our telephone conversations, stories shared that usually resulted in either laughter or tears. Your artistry was a gift from God. Now you are with our Heavenly Father, Aunt Clem & Uncle George, Gus (yeah!) and the rest of the Santos & Quientero family. I am grateful you no longer suffer and have been reborn within the gates of Heaven. Until we see one another again, I will always keep you in my prayers. With Love, von.
Ps: is it "green" in Heaven? Ha, you know what I mean.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to you, Karen and Tony and family. Sabin will truly be missed. I remember when he showed me his art work. He was so talented. May God give you both the strength and comfort that you need during this difficult time. Please know that I am here for you and always will be. Love you both and I know that Sabin is probably smiling and happy to see Uncle George and Aunt Clem and he is another angel for us all. Rest in peace dear cousin.

“ Sabin was such a good friend, so funny, talented, loving and caring. I will miss him so very much. All his friends and family are in my thoughts and prayers during this time of sorrow and loss. However, all of you that knew him even just briefly know that he would want us smiling and laughing while we recall all his crazy antics and all the jokes he used to pull on us. I know I will be remembering him with a big smile on my face and thinking about that big heart and generosity.

I'll also be working toward that time when I get to see him again when "...God is with mankind ...and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more." Rev 21:3, 4

“ We are so sorry for your loss. I enjoyed the time I spent getting to know Q at the walls unit and I know that he loved his family very much. Such an artistic and talented person too, I remember admiring some of his artwork. Your family will definitely be in our thoughts and I know we will never forget him.

“ Q was a great guy! We are going to miss his joking and cutting up. He was a good friend, too. Always there for you if you needed something.

You are truly missed, but in a greater place. Peace and love be with you.
