“ Mr and Mrs Pittock, I don't know you but I read about your daughter in the Buffalo News. My husband and I lost our daughter on the day she was born this past January. I know the pain you are going though and I will pray for you and your family.

“ Travis and Stephanie, We are praying for you and your entire family. We know the past few months have difficult, but we are so grateful that you KNOW God's grace and mercy abound each and everyday. Your Sammy has been an inspiration for all of us ... a blessed reminder of how much Jesus loves each and everyone of us. May the Lord continue to guide you and give you peace. Sending love and hugs ...

“ Mr & Mrs. Pittock I don't personally know you but as I read your daughter's obituary I was deeply grived. God did not intend for humand to die.(Romans 5:12) When a child dies it is hard for parents. The Bible acknowledge the bitter grieft a mother can feel.(2 Kings 4:27). It is also difficult for a father even King David lamented of the death of his son. (2 Samuel 18:33) May you find comfort in the promise God made in the bible of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29). Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead ones will live..They will rise up." Again my deepest condolences.

“ I am sorry on your loss it is very hard to lose a child but I am sure that God will guide you to touch other parents that have been through what you have been through. At least you did get to spend at least an hour with her. Although, I did not meet her myself I know how much joy a child can bring to a family. And I will always remember you in my prayers. My name is Suzy, I am the oldest daughter of Dr. & Mrs. M.G. Selassie who are members of Faith Lutheran Church.

“ Dear Gruhn Family ~

As your witness and sharing through caringbridge captivated my heart and strengthened my prayers for you. . .I have to admit that little Sammie's life impacted mine.

You are dear to my heart & the memories of M&W,S&A always being welcomed at Grandma/pa Goeller's farm when we were there, too, are cherished "family ties". BE radical for Jesus still, Marcia
