“ Mr. Doyle was my general mechanics shop teacher at Mayde Creek HS back in the 90's. He was a great man and called me out when I was getting out of line. I will never forget those life lessons and think about him all the time when I am feeling displaced. I wish I could have reconnected with him sooner. May he rest in peace and his family and friends find comfort in the many great memories of this great man.

“ My Grandfather (Sams Eldest brother Billy Doyle) was greatest gift that I had growing up. He loved me more than anything and was never shy to let the world know that I was his Grandson. I saw that same passion in Uncle Sam every time I was around him. One of my best memories of Uncle Sam was when he called my grandfather on the phone one afternoon right before he passed away from lung cancer. My grandfather was not feeling too well that day but actually perked up when I told him who was on the phone. They must of talked on the phone over a hour and for that time I saw my best friend come out and at that time it did not seem he was sick at all. A couple of weeks later my grandfather lost his battle with cancer but I always have Uncle Sam to thank for allowing me to see my true Grandfather one last time.
