“ *I shall never forget waking after a surgery to find Sandy sitting at my bedside. She shared a very personal story with me that I might not have so much fear. I have always remained grateful for her beautiful heart and spirit. Her love of family, children, her husband and God were vividly evident every day that I knew her.
God bless you Steve and family. May God's peace and love envelop each of you during this time. Sent with love and prayers - Vicki Terry*
