“ Dear Plaster family,

I want you all to know that you are loved by me and our entire family very much. Your pain is and has been so far and wide over these past years and for that I'm so sorry. I have to tell you something really great that your daughter did for this world. She had two amazing kids. I knew Shane first hand very well. He is truly one of the most talented people that I've ever met. He is beyond special and all that it implies. He is unique, extraordinary and very very bright. He may just be one of the best employees I ever had. I miss that child so much. But I'm also very proud of the young man he has turned into. When Sandy got to heaven and saw through the eyes of Jesus what amazing kids she had - it made her happy too!

"Turn your eye's upon Jesus. Look full into His wonderful face and the things on Earth will grow strangely dim - in the light of His glory and grace"

Rest in Peace now Sandy!

“ We will never quite understand why Sandy's life turned out the way that it did. There really is nothing that science or medicine could say or do for her. It is so much bigger than the human eye or heart could really fathom. Her existence on this earth was a mystery. It was in many ways filled with sorrow and pain - not only for Sandy but for those who desperately needed and yearned for her love. The GOOD news is - no the GREAT news is: Sandy's mystery and bondage has been lifted. She is no longer in sorrow and has no pain. She is filled with love, joy, peace. She is WHOLE! She is with Jesus there is no doubt about that. She surrendered her heart to him many years ago. And once you claim HIM - you ARE saved. Sandy was saved that day and most importantly she is saved now. Though I know she leaves behind a legacy of unanswered questions. We can all be sure of this: SANDY PLASTER PRATHER IS WITH JESUS CHRIST!

I am praising God for that!!!! I hope that great news will bring the one's who so desperately wanted to be in her life comfort Someday soon we will all get to see the Sandy that she always desired to be - the Sandy that you need for her to be - because she is now perfect and sitting beside HIM!

God bless each and every one of you that have been so broken and sad over her illness. I look back now and see that the beauty in her life and the message that her death brings is this: No matter what you are or who you are, Jesus loves you inspite of it all and once you are saved you are always saved. It is not your works that garner you place on the New Earth, Heaven. It is your very own faith and making that very personal decision to make Him your savior. It is a free gift that HE paid the ultimate price for and today Sandy is the receipant of the greatest gift that we are offered - eternal life.....

God bless you all and I love you....

“ Words cannot express how much we are sorry to hear about the lost of your precious mother, daughter, and sister. It is always comforting to know our love ones are with Jesus but we know the emptiest it brings for you still living on earth. We pray that Jesus will hold you in his arms as he walks you through this journey, that he will direct your steps and fill the emptiest with his love and comforting spirit, for he is the comforter.

*May God Bless Your Famiyl,
