“ It has been a few years since meemaw passed away but I still miss her. I wish I could have been there for her funeral. I never faced her passing because I didn't want to believe that she was gone. She was an amazing woman. Everyone here has written that she was such a lovely woman and it is true. She always did have a smile on her face and she never had any harsh words. I could always talk to her about anything. Inside her home is a paddle that is labeled "grandma's paddle" and it has a big heart shaped pillow on the end of it. That was meemaw alright. She never met my wife or my child, but I'm sure she is watching over us now. I hope she knows that we will always love her and that we miss her. I love you meemaw

“ John,
I was deeply saddened to learn of Sandy's passing. My sincere sympathy to you and your family. During the war Sandy's parents and my parents were good friends so Sandy is a part of my oldest childhood memories. VJ Day is one of the most vivid. We were visiting the McAlisters when the surrender announcement came through so we all piled into a car and rode around Circleville waving small flags out the window.

It is so unfortunate that after high school life leads us down different paths and we loose track of good friends and classmates. Take care, God Bless. Barb and Charley Gerhardt

“ John, You and your family have been in my heart and prayers since I learned of Sandy's death this morning. I remember Sandy as such a dear friend, always smiling and fun to be with...and she evidently had not changed at all through the years. Circleville High School days were long ago, but memories are lasting and sweet. May our Lord comfort you and your family in this difficult time of transition until you can all be together again one day. Take care of each other. In Christian love, Mary Walker Kosky

“ John and family,

My prayers go out to your family in your loss of Sandy, It has been many years since we walked the halls of Circleville High School. Those were the easy times of life. I have thought of you and Sandy many times as I have reflected on the days of growing up in Circleville. May God give you the strength and love in the days ahead.

“ Dear Schraub family,

My heart felt heavier for hearing of Mrs. Schraub's passing. My memories of her are of kindness and warmth, always bestowed upon me when I came through the door looking for Mike. The cheering for a group of baseball players was the beginning, and continued throughout high school and up to the time I joined the Navy. Please know I send my deepest regrets for not being able to delivery my condolences in person, but my duty aboard ship dictates my absence. I carry with me the fond memories of my youth in which she and the entire Schraub family was a part of.

Always a devoted friend of your family,

“ *The Dear Schraub family,
This very day, as I look at Sandy's photo I think of long ago I met her in the dental office. At that time, I thought what a wonderful person to have as your Moma, how could she always be so nice. How did she do it?
What a perfect example of the Love the Savior has for us. Sandy truly lived what she learned. I know without a doubt, John you have been blessed with the most wonderful wife and mother to your children. How proud she spoke (smiling of course), of John and each of her children.
Our most sincere thoughts are with your family.
Your friends,*

“ We are so sorry to hear this news. We so appreciated you both being there for us, and especially Dad, in our grief. Mrs. Schraub will be dearly missed by so many people you all have touched throughout your lives. May God's perfect peace comfort you through this tough time. We share the comfort of knowing that she is singing with the angels now, right next to our Mom, arm in arm, praising the King of Kings forever. God bless your entire family.

“ John and family:
Wayne and I wanted to send our condolences and to let you know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers. It has been a long time since we really sat down and visited like we use to, but your family has always been a beautiful memory for us. From having Chris and John in our MYF group as youngsters (sorry Mike you were too young at the time), to having John and Sandy in our Sunday School class and as friends from so long ago. Thanks to all of you for such great memories. Sandy was truly a blessing to anyone who knew her and she will be missed by all those who knew and loved her for who she was, and I know for a fact that God is holding her now in the palm of his hands! She is now whole again without illness, will always be there in your hearts and minds, and is now watching over each and every one of you like a guardian angel. God Bless and Comfort You All!
