“ To Chuck, Gretchen, Scarlett, and all of Scott's loving family, I am so fortunate to have been Scott's friend for the years he was active at Grace. He mentored the class teachers in unconditional love, generosity, devotion to Jesus, and purity. He leveled the path for fellow students who were having a bad day - a phenomenal counselor who connected in the most compassionate way. I pray that he did not suffer much in his final days, but I am certain that he is held in special relationship with God in heaven. I always carry one of the many shells he brought me from the beach. God blessed all of us with the touch of this unforgettable man.
Deep condolences and comforting blessings,
Pam

“ Prayers and thoughts for your family during this difficult time. Even though I only met him on several occasions, I remember him as a great person. I was just speaking of him a couple of weeks ago to a friend. I am sorry for your loss and will always remember him. Please find comfort knowing he is in a good place with a higher person watching over him. Greg Fleming(Cathy Bailey's ex-husband)

“ Mr and Mrs Sprague,
I had the pleasure of working @HNMC with Scott for greater than 20 years. He was such an inspiration to me. He was my friend and chat partner. He loved his family so much . He told me his father was his hero. I just wanted you to know that. He's fishing now in a big lake. I loved him and will miss him .

“ Dear Gretchen and Charles,

I am so sorry for this loss. You have been wonderful parents, and Scott has been a wonderful son. So, the life together has been mutually rewarding.

As a golfing friend of Gretchen's, I will miss the mother's hugs of Scott on the Lakes #3. As a member of the Elkins Lake community, I will miss Scott as a food critic of the clubhouse restaurant. From what I understand, he was a strong supporter, but had no problem expressing any dislikes.

To you, devoted parents and son, I send my condolences.

“ Dear Chuck and Gretchen, What wonderful parents you both were to Scott. He was so lucky to be in your care during his life on earth. But now, he is in the care of his parent in heaven and all is well once all of us who knew Scott can overcome the grief of his passing. Pam and I had great fun with Scott, John, and others in Sunday School and the Wednesday night program. Also, I will also long remember his dedication to my ushering team, and how I could always count on Scott and Chuck being at the church on time to handle the various ushering chores of the day. God bless!

“ For Dearest Duke: Scott now has a new address and a new roommate. Scott said he calls his new roommate JC! He is very very happy with his new home. Thank you for keeping an eye on him while he was down here on Earth. We will all see him again at that big reunion in the near future. All the years I have known Scott he never once mistakenly called me Cindy. His memory was like an elephant! Love & Prayers to you all. Tell Gretchen, Chuck & Scarlett to rest assure he is having the time of his life! Love you all, Cat (Pups: Fred & Rusty too) Bailey

“ Dearest Scott, (aka..scott tissue)...I have been struggling, with where we are today. If I may...I remember a much simpler time...when,...you know....you gave me a sense of humor....you taught me how to laugh, especially at myself....how to love.....myself and my family.....and you should know...that as I look back over my life... I know in the heart of my heart, that you will always be a part of who I am. So Scott.. Just remember... There are no stickers in heaven... Just yohooo's and brownies....I love you always, Amy (aka...aim toothpaste....aim pooltable).

Dearest Scarlet, Aunt Gretchen and Uncle Chuck,

Oh my! How can this be?
