“ Les and family, Im so sorry to hear about Sharon. The world has lost a wonderful woman. I was just talking about her the other day and remembering when she and Mom used to go to Galveston a long time ago during the winter for that week for their weight loss trip. I considered Sharon my mentor in so many ways - she taught me not only how to be a good ICU nurse yrs ago but how to be a better person. I will miss her dearly and know you will also. Bless you all - my heart is with you
