April 5, 1942 - October 3, 2016

Sharon Kaye Myrick Brown of Montgomery, Texas passed from this earth on Monday, October 3, 2016. She entered Heaven as she slept after a life of passionately loving others. Sharon was born on April 5, 1942, as the oldest daughter of Edwin and Lillian Myrick in Lubbock, Texas. Early on she enjoyed the study of French and piano in high school, where she soon found herself under the spell of Buddy Holly and Elvis Presley. Much of this time in her life was spent going to church with her brothers and sisters while living in Lubbock, enjoying the most beautiful sunsets of earth. She played the piano at church and loved to play while others sang along.

She married Wayne Lee in 1960 and they had two wonderful children, Elizabeth Lee and John Lee. She lived her life to please others and was ferocious in her will to be best of what she accomplished. She was passionate about life, love and liberty and was as comfortable in her jeans as she was in a formal gown. Her favorite song was Willie Nelson's "Blue Eyes Crying in the Rain". She loved flowers and working in her gardens. In 1980 she married Robert Brown and they had a beautiful daughter, Griffith Brown. She never allowed anything to hold her back and was a true fighter to the very end. Her life ended with her focused on heaven and studying the bible. On October 3rd Heaven welcomed home one of its warriors.

She is survived by her daughters; Elizabeth Lee and Griffith Brown, son, John Lee, and two very loved grandchildren, Jorin Lee and Gigi Brown. She is also survived by her sister, Brenda Isgitt, brother and sister-in-law, Mike and Linda Myrick; sister-in-law, Carol Myrick along with numerous very loved nieces and nephews. “ I can remember spending time with Wayne and Sharon in Houston and she sewed me a couple outfits when I was around 10 years old or so. She was such a talented seamstress and I was most excited about it. I can still remember what they looked like. She was a beautiful woman and I have sweet memories of her. I am so sorry for your loss and I know God will give you peace knowing she has met him face to face.

“ To John, Griffith and the rest of the family: I am so sorry for your loss. While I didn't get to see you and your mother as often as I would have liked, I always enjoyed the times we did get to spend together. She was a wonderful person and I'm proud to have called her my aunt.

*Love,
Rick*
