

Sharon Anne Rodriguez

June 30, 1956 - October 5, 2021

Sharon Rodriguez, age 65, peacefully passed away on October 5, 2021, with her family by her side. She was born on June 30, 1956 in St. Albans, New York. She graduated from La Grange High School in 1975. She worked as a bank teller and owned her own cleaning business. She was a 4th generation member of the Ponca Tribe of Nebraska.

Sharon had two children, Christina and Michael. They were her pride and joy. She had just as much fun as they did when taking them to the movies and the roller-skating rink. She taught them compassion and how to love with their whole heart.

Sharon loved to help others. She attended Alley Clown School, where she learned how to bring joy to the faces of those in need. She eventually pursued her passion in caring for others and obtained her degree in vocational nursing. Sharon loved being a nurse. Providing quality care to nursing home residents truly fulfilled her. This is where she met her coworker and fellow nurse, David Rodriguez. They were inseparable and married on March 13, 2014. They continued to work in nursing homes together until Sharon became disabled from her 5 yr. battle with Myelofibrosis. David never left her side, especially the last 10 weeks of her life. She found love, strength and comfort in his presence.

Sharon will be remembered for her compassionate heart and for the love she showed to everyone. Her famous cookies and croissant rolls will always be treasured. Sharon loved nature and will be remembered daily in all of its beauty.

She treasured her family like no other. She leaves behind her beloved husband, David Rodriguez; two children, her daughter Christina Carden, her son, Michael Meinen; her son in law, Jay Carden; her grandchildren, Zane Meinen and Jayden Meinen; her stepson, Christopher Rodriguez; her stepdaughters, Andrea Rodriguez and her significant other, Josh Elowsky; Rebecca Kilgore and her husband, Dustin; her step grandchildren, Esme Elowsky, Sebastian Elowsky, Arlo Kilgore, Curtis Kilgore, and Blake Kilgore; Three sisters, Debra Wilkinson, Peggy Wilkinson, and Susie Kalmus; her brother in law, Darrell Kalmus; her brother, Michael Bagent; her stepmother, Lynn Bagent; her cousin, James Crawford; her Aunt Norissa Caraway, Aunt Carolyn Harper, Uncle Howard Harper, and several other special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Sharon also leaves behind her precious fur baby, Dolly.

Sharon is preceded in death by her father, Wayne Bagent; her mother, Evelyn Reeves, and her step father, Morris Reeves; her father-in-law, Joe Rodriguez, mother-in-law, Tillie Rodriguez; 3 brothers in law, Jim Wilkinson, Herbert Wilkinson, and Darrell Rodriguez; And her special aunt, as well as dear friend, Lynn Deaton.

The family would like to thank Sharon's sister, Peggy Wilkinson, for donating her stem cells, in an attempt to save Sharon's life. Her selfless act of love will always be remembered.

Memorial donations can be made to the MPN Research Foundation, to help find a cure for Myelofibrosis. mpnresearchfoundation.org
