“ One of the hardest working men I have ever had the pleasure to meet. I knew Shawn for to short a period of time, in that time he quickly became one of my best friends. One of the few that would give his shirt of his back even if he didn't have one to give. He will be greatly missed by all. My heart goes out to his wife and family.

“ Shawn was a kind hearted man. I had the pleasure of working with him for many years, he was a true friend/brother. If ever in need even if he had nothing to give at the time Shawn would find a way to get it to help you out. Shawn loved Joey and their family unconditionally. Shawn was loved and is missed by many.

“ I met Shawn after he married my grandson's mom, Joey. I didn't see them in recent years. But, through Joey's posts, I knew they had a good, happy and successful marriage ~something that is rare. He took on a big family and gave them his all. What those older kids are feeling and saying says it all. Shawn was loved, appreciated and will be profoundly missed by his beloved wife family.

“ Even though we only had the pleasure of meeting Shawn once when we visited you all in Texas a couple of years ago, we knew right away that he was a good guy and how much he loved his family. Our hope is that your knowledge of his love and devotion bring you some comfort during this difficult time.
