“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss of your dear loved one. The time spent with them always seems so short. Please find comfort in the promise from God that he will resurrect our loved ones, John 5:28. The bible also says that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Psalms 34:18. My prayers are with you and your family, Sandy

“ Sherman was one of those once in a lifetime kind of people you meet! He was always cheerful and and loved being around people. He always had to know all about you and get that hug because hugging was his thing. I can't remember ever being around him and seeing him in a bad mood. God will soon get all those hugs. Our sympathy goes out to his loving family.

“ *Dearest Friends:
Dad and I are so sorry to hear of Sherman's sudden passing. Although we never got to spend a lot of time with Sherman, we knew what a special person he was. He "stepped up" in his role of husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather to his new family during all of those 22 years. And what a wonderful family it is.*

Please know that our prayers are with you. Grief, unfortunately, cannot be rushed. Take the time you need to grieve, but also to be thankful for the time Sherman was with us and the memories that were made.

*We love you all -

“ *May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4)
May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5*
