“ Stacy, prayers have continued to go out for you and your family and now is no different. God has sustained you through this 2 years of a very hard fought battle and now your mother gets to rest. I know she will watch over you like you watched over her and her presence will always be with you. God bless you and your family as you celebrate her homegoing and continue to live a fruitful life as your mother would want! Peace be with you and I cant wait to give you a hug!

“ Condolences to the Syphrett family. The Bible has always been helpful to me during times of loss and a real source of hope for the future. One scripture in particular that is encouraging is John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" This is possible thanks to the ransom sacrifice offered by Jesús Christ. Also, Psalms 37:29 states "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Therefore we have the hope of reuniting with resurrected loved ones lost in death. I hope these scriptures can be of some comfort during this time of sadness. For more encouraging thoughts on this subject, please visit jw.org

“ *Charles, Stacy, and family,
My condolences to all of you on the loss of your sweet mom. I have wonderful memories from my childhood of my cousin Shirley when her mom and dad would come to see our Grandma Smith at the farm in southwest Oklahoma. I spent many fun times with Shirley during those visits at the farm. I remember when she was dating David and had his letter jacket. She was so in love with him! My thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time.*

“ Shirley was a wonderful lady with an amazing spirit and will to fight. She is remembered for her kindness to animals and love of jewelry. I will remember her most for the wonderful job she did raising such a beautiful, kind and loving daughter. Her daughter Stacy has much of her same spirit and I am blessed to know her.

My thoughts are with the entire family during this difficult time. May you find the same peace I believe Shirley now has. I am keeping you in my prayers.

*All my love,
Michele*
