“ *Sherry, Charlie, and Barrett,
Our thoughts and hearts are with each of you during this difficult time. We hope you can find peace and comfort from Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.*

Stanley was a dear friend. We had offices next to each other for several years at the Shute Creek Processing Plant in Western Wyoming. We also endured many cold Wyoming evenings sharing elk steaks and playing dominos. My days at Shute Creek always began with Broccoli (one of Stan's pet names) coming through the front door of the admin building doing his favorite three stooges imitation. Then he would set down his brief case and give me an incredible neck massage.

Stan was the kindness person and he shared it with every person he met. Judy and I both loved Stanley. I know he will fill heaven with so much joy and happiness. Sherry, Charlie, Barrett, and your families I hope you can be comforted by the many wonderful memories you shared with this great man.

“ Sherry and family, Ron and I have been praying for both of you and the family. We know but have a hard time accepting that God is in control. Stan is now in perfection, it is those left behind that suffer and have the heart break. Please know you are so loved by your church family, and Stan will indeed be missed. We would be blessed if you would let us know what you need and when. Prayers for comfort and strength, peace of mind and rest. All our love, Connie and Ron Hoisington

“ Stan and I go back to when we were toddlers at First United Methodist Church in Freeport. We grew up together at school, church, and Cub Scouts. Some of my earliest memories are of my dad taking me over to the Brock's house where their family had one of the best Lionel model train sets around. It was so big it had to be set up in the upstairs of their double garage. It probably covered three sheets of 5 x 9 plywood. I have a school photograph of our 1st grade class, and that day Stan was wearing his Cub Scout uniform. He was always a fine young man, and I will always remember his great optimism and manners. With Stan, it was always, "Yes Sir or No Sir, and Yes Ma'am or No Ma'am". I thank God most appreciatively for having had Stan as a good friend over the years.
