“ Stella was my beloved sister-in-law. Stella was a true lady and the kindest, most gentle person I had the pleasure of knowing. Stella exhibited great courage, long suffering and faith in her lengthy battle. I often think would I have that kind of courage, long suffering and faith? I am not sure I would. Stella was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, wife and Jim's best friend. To me, Stella lived the life that Almighty God desires all of his children to live by modeling our Lord Jesus Christ. The Christian Fruits of the Spirit are love, joy peace, long suffering, gentleness, faith, meekness and temperance. In my opinion, I believe that Stella demonstrated all of them. I love Stella and will miss her greatly. I know that I will see her again in heaven.

“ When Stella went to be with Jesus, the world lost an Angel. I’ve known Stella for many years. She will always be one of the most loving and caring ladies I’ve ever known. Her happiness was contagious and you always felt happier just being with her. I’ll always remember her love of beautiful things. She loved Jim and her family deeply. She was a true friend to so many and saw the best in people. She is greatly missed but I know we will be together again someday, with Jesus.

“ To Stella... My Beloved sister. I miss you more than words can say. I have lots of memories from our life that will never be forgotten. When I visit our hometown of Hempstead, Texas, the memories surface like it was yesterday. You being my older sister, I lived and learned from an individual that was Strong in her faith and lived life to the fullest. May you rest in God’s Peace Always 🙏
Until we meet again
I Love You Sis 😘

“ I have many wonderful memories of Stella!! She was always like a second mom to me. I loved when we would go for lunch or shopping or to the mall and she ways made me laugh. She was a very calm nature and had a funny personality. She was the most positive person that I knew. I admired her for that. Her faith in Jesus was amazing. She always had a great sense of style and always new the new trends. She was loved my many and will be forever my friend and in my Heart!!

“ Mom, you were such a good natured, soft spoken, thoughtful, woman of faith, that did so much for us. This world lost a beautiful soul. You were not only my mom but my best friend. You always listened to me and gave me great advise. You knew how to calm me when someone had me rattled. I am going to be lost without you. As I told you in your last hour, I promise I will do my best to stay on that path to Jesus that you spoke of in your journal. I promise to do my best to lead my children to that path.

I love you! (I hear you now responding “I love you more”)

Stacey

My mom loved being outside and connecting with God through nature. When she was driving a school bus she had designated trees on her route for each grandchild and every time she drove by those trees she would say a prayer for that child. She loved my brother and I very much but her grandkids had a special place in her heart. She will be missed by all of us.

“ To my lovely wife and best friend. God showed me to you Stella for HE new exactly what I needed and that was a special woman with a loving heart and one who walked many trails on Jesus Hill. I know that was your special place to see God’s wonders and letting Jesus help lead you through your daily challenges and helping prepare you for a wonderful day that we will all face for that is when you made your travel to the perfect place. I miss you every second of the day and I love you even more for I have ever lasting memories that can never be taken away and you left me almost daily written verses showing me your passions for Jesus which now has me on Jesus Hill working to strengthen my touch in Jesus for rest of my life. In this world I will be told that we are not man and wife, but in “my “ world we are still joined as one and will be married for eternity. Your loving husband, “Babe”.

“ I knew Stella through Church and First Friday breakfasts. Wonderful woman and so soft spoken. She always had a smile on her face, a warm greeting, and a big hug. Stella will be missed but not forgotten. Our prayers go out to the family. Rejoice in her life, be sad for just a moment, and remember!

“ So sorry for the loss of Stella a child of God. Memories of us when growing up Stella was so full of love for her family and her friends. We laughed and had so much fun sitting in her living room watching her children play. Stella's smile was so captivating that you couldn't help but smile and laugh with her. Rest in peace sweet child of Jesus and will see you when we meet again.
