

Steve Annis

September 20, 2012

A Memorial Service will be held for Steve Annis on Thursday, September 20 at 3 PM at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Willis. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Experimental Aircraft Assoc. (EAA) or Aircraft Owners and Pilots Assoc. (AOPA). Written condolences to the family may be left at the above link.

Tribute Wall

“ Steve Annis

November 15, 2022 at 08:33 PM

“ The holidays are here and it's making me think of the party I was going to invite you and Steve to. We miss Steve and I would love if you could join us. There will be others that would love to see you as well. It's December 21st. Please call us if you need anything. 281 893 6157, my daughter still talks about the time we spent in your architectural firm.

there

Ken and Teri Spoleti - December 07, 2012 at 02:14 PM

“ Knesia, so sorry to hear about Steve. I know dad (Steve's Uncle Sheldon) was sad to hear the news. Although I haven't seen Steve, Lisa, and Lori since we were all young I remember them all. Dad always kept us "up" on what everyone was doing. It sounds like you were the joy of his life. Again, sorry for your loss.

Michel (Mick)Annis Becker - September 30, 2012 at 07:41 PM

JA

“ Steve was on my first crew and my trainer for a while. I'm sorry to hear of your loss.

Julia Avery - September 20, 2012 at 02:02 PM

BS

“ Knesia and family, our heartfelt condolences are with you during your time of great loss.

When I learned of Steve's death, while doing what he loved, John Mcgee's poem "High Flight" immediately came to mind. It seems to have been written for Steve and his love of flying.

*"Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth of sun-split clouds, — and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of — wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air....*

*Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace.
Where never lark, or even eagle flew —
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
- Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.
"*

BERNADETTE SESSION - September 20, 2012 at 12:22 PM

JB

“ Steve was full of passion for his life and for you, Knesia. I loved to hear him talk about his home life, because that was the one place where he was truly HAPPY. We are so sorry for your loss. I pray that you will have a smile on your face every time you think of Steve.

janet & rodney bartek - September 20, 2012 at 09:59 AM

L(

“ I was so shocked to learn of Steve's death and of all things while flying. Steve could not wait to retire and spend his days flying. It is so sad that he didn't have more time to fly (his passion and his love). My heart feels for you Knesia. Know that Steve loved you very much (you could tell by the way he spoke about you).

Lisa Ake (Smalley) - September 19, 2012 at 07:50 PM

KG

“ I was saddend to hear of Steve's death. I enjoyed working with Steve and we went on numerous fishing trips together. He will be missed. May God provide comfort to the family and friends.

Ken Gallegos - September 18, 2012 at 09:08 PM