“ Dear Daily family, another great one gone. Your momma was one of my mommas, and am so sorry I missed being able to come tell you in person that I care. I was with my daughter, Megan, having her first baby. I feel so blessed to have had Sue Daily and her children in my growing up years. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers for now and in the future difficult days. Much love, Kay

“ Anne, I did not realize that your mom was one of my English teachers when I was in school until I saw her picture and recognized her beautiful face. What a sweet, sweet lady and wonderful teacher she was. I'm so sorry for your loss and will continue to keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ I just wanted you to know how much I appreciated your mother. She was my 7th grade English teacher, and probably the best (in a tie with Fran Mote!) English teacher I ever had, including college. Whether she was reading to us from "Treasure Island" and teaching us about similes or hyperbole, or teaching grammar, or how to write an essay, she did it with a smile and caring manner. She truly is a "favorite" teacher. My thoughts and prayers are with you. - Pam “ Sue was my dearest friend! As colleagues we shared many experiences together and she was always the right source of assistance when it came to a grammar question. And of course, she will always be remembered for her famous "Brer Rabbit".

May the Lord give all of you comfort with the faith that heaven is so very beautiful for her now.

In God's Love,

“ Anne, Bobby and family,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time of sorrow. We were so sorry to hear of your loss of Sue. She was such a neat and special person. She also had a real impact on her students. Rachel still talks about how much she used to love hearing her read stories with the special little touches she gave to the stories and characters. It was also a lot of fun to teach with her and then be in MPMS Retired Teachers with her. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you. We love you and your family. Take care.
