“ Never was there a time that i saw or spoke to Susan that she didn't have a smile on her face. A smile so radiant that now I realize was the love of Jesus Christ and her love for the church shining thru her. She will be greatly missed by her friends at St. Thomas.

“ Dear Susie, thanks for being my sister. You dedicated good will to everyone around but excluded yourself because you were too busy worrying about others. I often thought you set goals for a possible husband too high but in retrospect I see you chose Jesus and friends and family. Compassion for those in need and your attention to your neices, nephews, and brothers makes this letter seem tardy. I shake my head and still can't believe your're gone. You didn't drink or smoke, pretty much lived straight and narrow. I suppose you were allotted just enough time to show us what good is. I was so lucky. Your loving brother, Pat

“ My Aunt Susie was so fun to grow up with. When I was 5 years old or so I spent the summer with Grandmother, Grand Daddy and Susie. They lived in Corpus at the time and seemed like Susie took me to the Beach all Summer. The memory sticks out the most is a radio contest we entered for a surf board. I remember waiting for them to announce the winner next to my grandparents giant stereo. Susie had me so convinced we were going to win, that win we didn't I was pretty upset and so was Susie. I won't forget that though how we were listening and waiting and we were so excited, that was the fun part the surf board would have never been used but I still have that memory today. I will always remember Susie on Christmas because she always made it so fun for the as a kid and has sent me and my kids ornaments for years. I love you Aunt Susie thanks for being so awesome and caring
