

Susan Marie Williams

August 14, 1955 - January 13, 2018

Susan Marie Williams born in Baytown, Texas to James Ray Bishop and Roberta Jane Bishop on August 14, 1955 promoted to angel on January 13, 2018.

Susan moved to Huntsville in the 70s, where she started her family while going to nursing school, to cake decorating and later in life going back to school for phlebotomy. She became a very well-known phlebotomist, working for LabCorp for 20 years.

Susan was a very caring fun loving mother, grandmother, as well as a great-grandmother. She was loved by all that knew her and always knew how to brighten a room. Her door was always open for anyone in need, no matter the circumstances. She was so full of love and God; and was not ashamed to let you know what she thought of anything.

Susan has five children and numerous ones that called her maw maw just like they were her own. Left to cherish her memory are son Eric Thomas Williams and wife Suzanne; daughter Kristin Sue Adams and husband Rickey; son James Dustin Williams; son Roger Clayton Williams; and daughter Rebecca Endurance Archuleta; grandchildren Eric Thomas Williams Jr. and wife Sarah, Rhiannon Nicole Williams, Ethan Thomas Williams, Valerie Lynn Alvarez, James Evan Williams, Stuart Wayde Carter and wife Aeryan, Zachary Alan

Carter, Victoria Lynn Davis, Sammie Williams, Lacy Williams; three great grandchildren: Haven Grace Carter, Jason Wyatt Carter, Axel Ray Carter; as well as many nieces, nephews and all of the many close friends that she was well known to as Pudd.

You will always be in our hearts and forever greatly missed.

“ I will certainly miss you my friend--miss our talks, our laughs, your smile, our tears...all of everything that joined us together as friends. My heart goes out to your children that you loved so much--your grandchildren and great grandchildren--and lastly all of your friends that loved you so much. Your leaving has left a void in all our lives--but we know God needed you for a special reason or he wouldn't have taken you from us so soon. Annabel Gibson
