

Sybil Walton Nunley

May 9, 2011 - May 11, 2011

Sybil Walton Nunley Born in Huntsville, Texas, Sybil Walton Nunley passed away peacefully in Conroe, Texas on May 9, 2011. She had returned to Huntsville in 2004 after having lived in Kingsland, Texas for twenty years. Previous to that she resided in Austin, Texas for many years with her husband, W. E. "Woody" Walton. Sybil was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She was known for her superb cooking skills, jovial nature, and wit. She loved competitive sports. She enjoyed weekly games, and long weekends in Kinder, with close friends. She was a Life-Master of the American Contract Bridge League and spent sixty-plus years enjoying bridge with many cherished friends. She will be greatly missed, but warmly remembered in the hearts of many for her charm, compassion, generosity, humor and magnanimous loving-kindness to others. Previously a member of the First Baptist Church of Huntsville, she was a member of the Kingsland Community Church at the time of her death. She has attended several local churches since returning to Huntsville. A graduate of Draughon Business College, she was employed by Dowell Division of Dow Chemical for many years. She retired from The University of Texas Austin as Executive Assistant to the Dean of Engineering. She is survived by her daughters and their spouses, Gloria and William C. Bennett of Lakeway, Texas and Glynda and Dr. Joseph J. Malleske of The Hills, Texas; three grandchildren, Joy and husband William G. Matchett, A. Glen Reina and Michael W. Malleske; three great-grandchildren, Chad Reina, Thomas

Matchett and Courtney Reina; her sister, Elsie Schulze, and husband Albert, of Rosharon, Texas; several sisters and brothers-in law; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Misty, her faithful Yorkie, brought her many years of happiness. Twice widowed, Sybil was also preceded in death by her parents and four brothers. In lieu of flowers, the family requests a contribution may be made to a charity of your choice. Funeral services for Sybil will be held Wednesday, May 11, 2011, 2:00 p.m., at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas with a reception to follow. The family will have a private burial service at Adickes Addition of Oakwood Cemetery, where Sybil will rest with her husband Woody Walton. “ *Glenda and Gloria,
I am so sorry for your loss. I loved your mother. She was always fun to be around. She and Mom enjoyed their afternoons playing Phase 10 and drinking Irish Coffee. We will be there for the funeral. Please let us know if there is anything you need. Marsha & Ken Wells, Velma Nunley, and Craig Jones.*
