“ Alan and I have such fond memories of Sylvia and Kenneth Turner and all of the family members who have served in our church for many years. One of the special Sundays in our lives was shortly after we moved to Conroe. The Turners extended a warm welcome to us and several other younger couples for Sylvia's delicious Sunday dinner. We were blessed for having known her. With our sympathy and love.

“ Cathy and family:

Never know the right words and sometime there are no words but just to say I love you and will be praying for you and your family.

May God comfort you through this time.
