

Terrin Keith Lee

August 7, 1996 - January 21, 2015

Terrin Keith Lee, 18, of Huntsville, Texas passed away on January 21, 2015. He was born August 7, 1996 in Huntsville, Texas to Keith and Cindy Lee.

Terrin was a junior at Huntsville High School where he was involved in Horticulture.

Terrin will be remembered for his smile, his laughter, always being happy, and for the fact that he “never had a bad day.” He was a big kid with a big heart and a jovial personality that instantly drew people to him. His kind nature and often joking demeanor inspired and touched the hearts of everyone he met, including the nurses and specialists he loved at Texas Children’s Hospital. He enjoyed playing video games, watching T.V., playing basketball, and most of all spending time with family and friends.

Terrin is preceded in death by his grandparents Robert and Erma Lee. Terrin is survived by his loving parents Keith and Cindy Lee; sisters Brianna Reeves, LaKeitha Lee, and Keicin Lee; brother Keith Lee; grandparents Frenchie and Joyce Crawford; aunts and uncles Verna (Billy) Philio, Walter (Laura) Lee, Robert (Linda) Lee, Cheryl (Larry) Mock, Isaiah (Juanita) Richardson, Anna Shaw, Sherry Murphy, Katie Davison, and Chester (Pam) Crawford; numerous cousins, family and friends; family friend Frankie Harrison; and his special friend Lynn Hodges.

Terrin will lie in state from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM on Saturday, January 24, 2015 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas. A service will be held at 1:00 PM on Sunday, January 25, 2015 in the chapel at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Huntsville, Texas. Interment will follow the service at Mayes Addition of Oakwood Cemetery in Huntsville, Texas.

Memorial condolences may be made to the family at www.shmfh.com.

“ The first time I met Terrin was the first day of his Freshman year of highschool. It was my first year at a new school and a new job. I was a little nervous that day, but there was Terrin, confident and so happy to be at his new school. He marched right up those steps to find his class. Right then, I knew I was going to have a great year. He instantly put me at ease. His laugh, his dancing, his hugs with an "awwwwwwww" attached to each one, his love for salad with ranch dressing and onions, his love for his friends at school all made him the sweetest loveable boy I know. Terrin, we will miss you so much, but we also know we will meet again. ”

“ Terrin there are no words that I can find to describe you. God created you in his vision of who all people should be. PERFECT. JOYFUL. LOVING. HELPFUL. You always smiled in good and bad times. I have so many memories from over the years. One that will always bring a smile to my face and tears to my eyes was Brea's graduation dinner. Watching you walk up to Cindy and say "Come on Momma" in that voice of yours taking her hand and leading her out onto the dance floor. Watching y'all dance together. You were Gods greatest gift to all who met you. I love you handsome.

Frankie J.Harrison - January 24, 2015 at 07:05 AM

That baby loved to dance. We danced almost every day...of course, his favorite part of the dance was to spin me and then dip me. He would laugh and laugh because I told him he was going to break poor old Ms. Lynn!!!

“Terrin is my little brother, my best friend, and my co-op buddy. There are far too many memories to nail down just a few favorites. I will always remember his deep, belly shaking laughter, his beautiful smile, and his excited personality. He was always concerned for others; I remember him coughing recently, a hard and long cough, and before he could even get the last one out he asked me if I was alright. He was so gentle and kind, easy to get along with, and fun to be around. If Terrin was in a great mood, then by default so was everyone else around him. He was also very well mannered; if you walked into a room and he was there, you’d immediately be greeted with a loud “hi or hello” and a small wave, and if other people were around, he’d make sure you spoke to them as well. He loved to joke around and when he tricked me good, he’d slap his knee and point at me while laughing that belly shaking laugh. Terrin loved attention, it didn’t matter who it was from or why, he just simply loved making people happy. And he adored being in front of a camera; he’d look at it, smile his incredible smile and say “cheese” without missing a beat. What I loved the most about Terrin is how he brought out the best in me. He’s the only person that’s ever seen me be me, he’s the only one who could ever bring the silliness out of me; the only someone who could take me out of my sometimes too serious ways and bring me back to the light. He was the Superman to my Batman. He only saw the good in people, and represented the best of hope and humanity, like Superman; a true boy scout and an honest gentleman. His stay in the hospital made me realize how much he was able to do for others just by being himself. Doctors that would walk around stone faced, never showing a smile, would walk in Terrin’s room and instantly start smiling and giggling. Nurses and specialists working in other rooms or units would stop by for a brief moment just to hear him say “hi,” wave, and to a few of them, blow kisses. This is what makes me the most proud of him, that he could accomplish in mere seconds what some people spend years trying to master, being able to genuinely appeal to others. People gravitated towards him; he had a special energy about him and because of it he inspired and touched the hearts of everyone he met. Terrin was a good man, a great human being, and it was, and always will be, an honor being his big sister. I love you, Terrin, you will forever be in my heart and will forever remain my best friend; I know God is taking care of you with all the cartoons you can watch and all the video games you can play. I'll see you again someday, but until then I'll do whatever I can to make you proud. Rest in peace, Terri, and good night for now.

“ To a wonderful family I had the pleasure of meeting while at Texas Children's Hospital who always wore a smile even in the most difficult times. I constantly saw God shining through you all. I know how much Terrin was loved and that he will be greatly missed. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel and he is completely healed now. The Crossland family loves you and will continue to pray your strength in the Lord.

“ It is impossible to share all the memories I have of my sweet dance buddy, but I want to start by telling his family how much I appreciate them letting me be a part of Terrin's life. Terrin was the kind of boy who never met a stranger and if he did, it wouldn't take long for him to melt their heart with his brilliant smile and deep laugh that shook him from head to toe. I guess my favorite memories would be our weekly Friday dance, our daily volleyball "matches", the way he would "accidentally" water me instead of the plants while we were in the greenhouse, and the way he giggled when he picked dandelions and blew them in my hair. I will forever hold him in my heart and look forward to having him meet me in Glory one day...I will bring the onions and ranch dressing. Farewell my darling boy!!!
