“ I have a necklace that my Aunt Gankie sent to me many years ago, from Thailand, set with a vivid orange stone. She sent us many things from exotic places, and always reached out to all of her family from wherever in the world she was.

I see her picture and see my grandmother, my mother, and myself. I am proud to have known this quiet lady with the big eyes, that traveled the world. God love you and keep you safe, Aunt Frankie.

“ So many great memories of Aunt Frankie! We loved when the family came home to Nederland for Christmas, she always brought great stories from Germany, Thailand or your home at the time. Her visiting on the porch in Oakhurst with Mother will always be a special memory of two special women. She will be missed. Love to you all, Brenda

“ No matter where you were in the world you always remembered my birthday. You were without a doubt the most caring person in our family but also one of the most genuinely loving people I ever knew. On the other hand, while I didn't keep in as touch like I should have don't ever think you weren't in my thoughts. I will always love you. Jerry
